

Individuals seeking to participate in VIDA must have household incomes at the time of enrollment at or below the annual or monthly amounts related to household size that are listed in the following chart. This chart is updated annually

Example: A household consisting of two individuals with a total household income of $29,956 per year would be eligible to participate in the VIDA program. However, a household consisting of two individuals with a total household income of $31,000 per year would be ineligible to participate.

200 Percent of Federal Poverty Limits for 2012

Total number of people within household	Maximum household income allowed annually	Maximum household income allowed monthly
1	$22,340	$1,862
2	$30,260	$2,522
3	$38,180	$3,182
4	$46,100	$3,842
5	$54,020	$4,502
6	$61,940	$5,162
7	$69,860	$5,822
8	$77,780	$6,482
9 or more: add this amount to annual income for each additional person	$7,920	$660

Effective March 9, 2012